2014 SYRAH

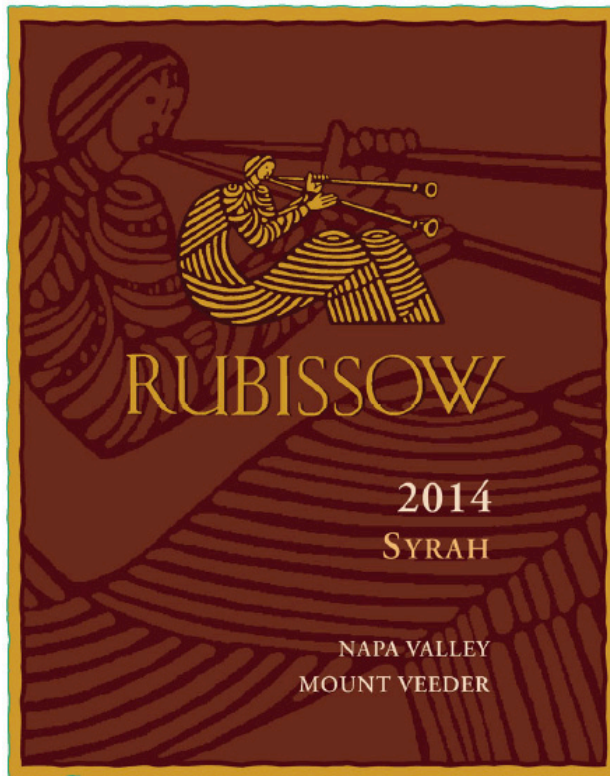

MT. VEEDER

The robust Syrah vine is perfectly at home on Mt. Veeder. It LOVES it here. The rugged mountain conditions are ideal to inspire the vines to produce grapes as flavorful as can be.

When we took over the vineyard from our Dad in 2004, the first thing we did was graft over some of the aging Cabernet Sauvignon vines to Syrah. We had seen just how wonderful Syrah could be when grown nearby at Lagier Meredith - whose Syrahs have gained worldwide acclaim for their expressive power and rewarding grace. We followed their lead and grew our own.

Here then 14 years later we are seeing the delicious results of that decision. It has taken some time, but our Syrah vines are now producing beautiful wines, year in, year out.

This new 2014 is simply breathtaking.

The first sip brings a swoon to the heart and a tear to the eye. Really. It's sort of a sweet sadness. Wine is a fleeting joy. Each bottle is finite. Like the way you feel when you see Yosemite for the first time, or when you first cross the Golden Gate Bridge. A rush to the head. An experience of something greater. A sense of pure delight. A sense of our fleeting place in time.

Great wines can (and should) do that. We think that within the history of our estate this is one of them..

On a practical level the wine is bright, yet sultry, rich, spicy, meaty and savory-sweet. Syrah always carries these flavors in varying degrees. Here, winemaker Tim Millos crafts an elegant balance of depth, richness and pure full-throttle Mt. Veeder terroir.

Enjoy! Cheers Friends, -Peter Rubissow
