2013 TROMPETTES MT. VEEDER

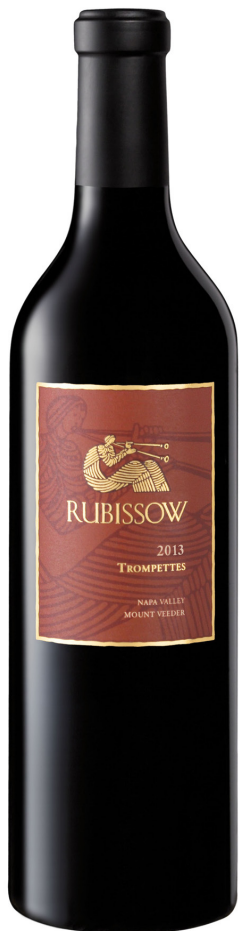

Dear Friends,

Some wines are loud and raucous. Some wines are beautiful, yet meek and elusive. Some wines are like a heavy freight train rolling through town. Some wines are razor sharp. Some are bittersweet. Some wines demand your attention. Others ask nothing of you except a sip or two. Some wines need you. to love them. Some wines couldn't care less. Some wines resist description...

Trompettes is none of these things....and all of these things.

Trompettes is always superbly, deliciously interesting. Thanks to the incredible flavors and aromas imparted to the vines from our ancient hillside soils and foggy/hot microclimate, Trompettes has so much complex beauty going on, frankly it's hard to describe. But it's a beauty we have fallen in love with. Head over heels. Year after year. And this year, 2013, it's especially lovely. Open a bottle. Take a sip and you will immediately see what I mean.

Modest in body and captivating in presence, this gorgeous '13 offers a subtle first sip but then follows with an explosive finish with rich fruit, exotic spice, authentic minerality, subtle acidity and modest tannins.

Complex and long on the palate without heaviness. the wine shows elegant and refined flavors of black cherry, pomegranate, plum jam, and raspberry. Aromatics of sweet black cherry, minerals, bay, iodine, pomegranate, all complete the package in sweet harmony.

To your health! Peter
